

Emerging Tasmanian Aboriginal Writers Award 2020

The award is:

- Open to Tasmanian Aboriginal writers of 16 years and older
- Eligible applicants will not identify as a professional or established writer, or have had more than one full-length* work published by a third-party publisher or produced by a professional theatre company.
- Entries need to address the theme: Resilience
- Entries must be prose: creative fiction, sci-fi/fantasy, historical non-fiction/fiction, biography/memoir (anonymised for blind judging), speculative fiction. 2500-3000 words.
- All entries must be typed and submitted in pdf format.
- Please ensure that you keep the original copy of your work.
- Please do not include your name anywhere on the piece of work that you are submitting.
- The work must have a title on the first page.
- The closing date for entries is 11.59pm on 10th July 2020.
- Late entries will not be accepted.
- Applicants may submit one entry only to admin@taswriters.org

Prize money of $1,000 will be awarded at the discretion of the judges as well as a membership to TasWriters.

No correspondence will be entered into regarding the judges' final decisions.

The 2020 ETAWA will be presented in September.

The details to be announced closer to the date, once Covid-19 restrictions on gatherings allow.

(A full-length work may be a novel, graphic novel, play script, book-length work of literary non-fiction, or a collection of short stories, literary non-fiction essays or poems.)*
